Draw a detailed scene taking place at your school that involves movement. Label your scene with all of the different forces acting on objects.